PREFACE

The government of India and the government of Seychelles signed a Tax Information Exchange Agreement ("TIEA") instead of a double tax avoidance agreement on 25 August, 2015. The main aim of TIEA is to enable the exchange of information related to taxes between the countries. This agreement has enabled the competent authorities to provide assistance through exchange of information that is foreseeably relevant to the administration and enforcement of the domestic laws of two countries concerning taxes covered by this agreement.

A TIEA is a mutual agreement between countries that is a tax treaty variant specifically entered into by governments to exchange information relevant to the administration and enforcement of the domestic tax laws of the contracting parties. The key purpose of this arrangement is to promote international cooperation in tax matters by exchanging tax related information.

The scope of the TIEA is broad as it covers all the taxes levied by governments of India and Seychelles. The agreement also provides for a mutual agreement procedure for resolving any difference or for agreeing on procedures under the agreement. As such, the TIEA does not provide for any financial implications. The costs involved in sharing of information shall be borne by each country on its own, however, in the event of extraordinary costs exceeding US Dollar 500, then the government of India shall bear it.
